What were the Fund's costs for the last year?

(based on a hypothetical $10,000 investment)

Class Name	Costs of a $10,000 investment	Costs paid as a percentage of a $10,000 investment
Class C	$222	2.13%

How did the Fund perform during the reporting period?

A +8.30% return for the Fund was insufficient to outpace the rally in the S&P 500 TR Index. The narrowness of market leadership within the S&P 500 conflicted with the all-capitalization portfolio strategy employed by the Fund.

Despite this headwind, the Fund holds several positions which have produced notable results during the past fiscal year. Ralph Lauren Corp. (Ticker: RL) and Flex Ltd (Ticker: FLEX), owned by the Fund for the totality of the measurement period, rose approximately 60% and 70%, respectively. Additionally, the Fund executed a well-timed purchase of Robinhood Markets, Inc. (Ticker: HOOD) during the tariff-fueled market selloff in April 2025 and has seen this position rise by more than 90% since purchase. At an aggregate level, the Fund has been overweight to, and has outperformed the results of, the Finance sector; the top performing sector of the S&P 500 over the past year. In addition to the challenge of breadth alluded to above, poor selection effects from the Industrial sector dampened results for the portfolio.

The Fund has rallied significantly since the tariff-induced lows of April 2025, outpacing the benchmark in the process. A continuation of the market's advance could prove favorable given the Fund's current orientation.

How has the Fund performed over the last ten years?
